

Dieffenbacher takes over B. Maier Zerkleinerungstechnik GmbH in Germany

Dieffenbacher has acquired 100% of the shares of B. Maier Zerkleinerungstechnik GmbH, with B. Maier Zerkleinerungstechnik GmbH taking over the know-how and the patents of B. Maier GmbH Maschinenfabrik as well as of AB Anlagenbau GmbH for the complete product range of size reduction technology. Production has not been included in the transaction. Within the Dieffenbacher Group Maier will be responsible for the engineering of chip preparation systems including conveying technique, chipper, chip bunker, flaking of the chips and refining of particles for surface furnish. B. Maier Zerkleinerungstechnik GmbH has also gained experience in the design and sale of pellet plants.